5.24-5.25 COMMITTEE ON STUDENT LIFE

Location: Faculty Handbook, 5.24-5.25

Meets: The Committee shall meet at least once each semester, and at least once a year the Committee shall hold a public meeting open to all comers, who should be provided with an opportunity to address the Committee with their concerns.

Purpose: The Committee on Student Life consults with the Vice President of Enrollment, the Dean of Students, the Chaplain, and other area heads and University committees on the adequacy and effectiveness of programs, policies, and procedures regarding non-academic matters of student life, and is responsible for reviewing such programs, policies and procedures. The Committee also serves as an agency of communication in all matters affecting students.

Membership: The Dean of Students or her designate, the Chaplain or his designate, and the President of Student Government are members ex officio of the Committee on Student Life. Three faculty members, at least one of whom must have tenure, at least one of whom must be a member of the Faculty Senate, and at least one of whom must be from the Gupta College of Business, shall be appointed by the President from a list of five nominees provided by the Faculty Senate; their term of service will ordinarily be two years, with at least one new member appointed each year. One undergraduate student, nominated by the Student Government Executive Council and approved by the Student Government assembly, shall serve a one-year term. Three graduate students, one from the Braniff Graduate School of Liberal Arts, another from the Gupta College of Business, and a third from the Neuhoff School of Ministry, shall serve one-year terms; they shall be appointed by the deans of their respective schools based on consultation with faculty. The Committee shall elect one of the three faculty members chair and elect one other member of the committee as secretary. All members except the Dean of Students are voting members. Where appropriate, the Committee may invite faculty, administrative staff, and students to serve as non-voting consultants on relevant issues that come before the Committee.

5.34-5.36 ATHLETICS, SPORTS, AND RECREATION COMMITTEE

Location: Faculty Handbook, 5.34-5.36

Meets: At least once each semester at the call of the Chair of the Committee.

Purpose: The Athletics, Sports, and Recreation Committee shall advise the Director of Athletics, Sports, and Recreation on the department's programs, policies, and procedures as related to the goals of the University and its membership in the relevant intercollegiate athletic associations. The Committee also serves as an agency of communication in departmental matters affecting students, faculty, staff and the community.

Membership: Membership of the Athletics, Sports and Recreation Committee includes the Faculty Athletic Representative, the Dean of Students, and the Director of Athletics, Sports, and Recreation. Two faculty representatives (one being the Faculty Athletic Representative for the relevant intercollegiate athletic association) are appointed to the Committee by the President from a list of three nominees provided by the Faculty Senate. Two student members are appointed to this Committee, one of whom will be an undergraduate student appointed by the Executive Committee of Student Government and one of whom will be a graduate student appointed by the Dean of the Gupta College of Business, in consultation with the Braniff Graduate Dean. One community representative is appointed to this Committee by the President. The Director of Athletics, Sports, and Recreation will serve as chair.

ex officio		Elected
Richard Strockbine	Director of Athletics; Chair	Susan Rhame	Gupta COB
Julia Carrano	Dean of Students	Anna Wilgenbusch (awilgenbusch@udallas.edu)	Undergraduate Student
Greg Roper	English, Faculty Athletic Representative	Nicolas Hovde (nhovde@udallas.edu)	Graduate Student

5.37-5.38 UNIVERSITY BENEFITS COMMITTEE

Location: Faculty Handbook, 5.37-5.38

Meets: As called.

Purpose: The University Benefits Committee reviews the University’s faculty benefit package annually. Members of the Committee seek to learn the faculty preferences when issues affecting the mix and type of benefits received arise, and to advise the administration of these findings. The Committee also hears and advises the administration on proposed changes in benefit coverage or in contracted providers, both from the perspective of cost spreading and the impact on faculty members and their families who have established relationships with care providers.

Membership: The Committee is chaired by the Director of Human Resources. The President of the University appoints four faculty members from a list of nominees provided by the Faculty Senate—at least one of whom must be from the Gupta College of Business—to serve on this Committee.

ex officio	Elected
Mary Fleck, Director, Human Resources; Chair	Rob Walsh (cont.)	Gupta COB
Eva Avila, Senior HR Generalist, Human Resources	Brett Bourbon (cont.)	English
	Deborah Hathaway	Cowan-Blakley Library

5.39 COMMITTEE LIAISONS

The following university committees will appoint a committee member to meet in liaison with a student representative appointed by the Student Government assembly: the Faculty Senate, University Council, the Undergraduate Curriculum Committee, the Committee on Undergraduate Admission and Financial Aid, the Council of Deans and Chairs, and the Library Committee. The purpose of the liaison is to improve communications and to inform Student Government of the deliberations and actions taken by the various committees.

Elected
Faculty Senate	Robert Baxley (rbaxley@udallas.edu)
University Council	John Paul Hasson (jhasson@udallas.edu)
Undergraduate Curriculum Committee	Brenda Mendoza Flores (jmendozaflores@udallas.edu)
Committee on Undergraduate Admission and Financial Aid	Joshua Nunn (jnunn@udallas.edu)
Council of Deans and Chairs	Grace Nye (gnye@udallas.edu)
Library Committee	Sarah Evans (sevans@udallas.edu)

5.40-5.41 COPYRIGHT AND INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY COMMITTEE

Location: Faculty Handbook, 5.40-5.41

Meets: As called.

Purpose: The Copyright and Intellectual Property Committee addresses questions and disputes regarding copyright and intellectual property. The Committee also hears and advises the administration on proposed additions to or changes in the copyright and intellectual property policy. The duties of the Committee include, but are not limited to, working with the relevant copy centers to help provide faculty and students with the means to respect the copyright of others creating and maintaining materials to educate faculty and students on the use of copyrighted material, and informing faculty and students of changes in copyright and intellectual property legislation.

Membership: The President of the University appoints three faculty members from a list of five nominees provided by the Faculty Senate. Appointments to the Committee are on a two-year rotating basis with at least one member serving as a carry-over from the previous year.

Elected
Cherie Hohertz (cont.)	Cowan-Blakley Library
Gilbert Garza	Psychology
Cathy Caesar	Art

5.42-5.43 COMMITTEE ON THE FACULTY HANDBOOK

Location: Faculty Handbook, 5.42-5.43

Meets: As needed.

Purpose: It coordinates all changes to the Faculty Handbook, in accordance with the procedures outlined in the Foreword. (i) Thus, in the case of a minor change, the President will inform the Committee as soon as he or she has authorized such a change. The Committee on the Faculty Handbook will then incorporate the change into the Handbook and advise the faculty that the amendment has occurred. (ii) In the case of a change initiated by the Faculty Senate, the vice chair of the Senate will advise the Committee of the change that has been recommended; the Committee will then submit the proposed change to the University Council for its consideration. If it is approved, the President will submit the change to the Board and advise the Committee in a timely manner of the Board's decision. In the case of approval, the Committee will incorporate the change into the Handbook and advise the faculty that an amendment has occurred. (iii) In the case of a change initiated by the President, the President or his designee shall inform the Committee on the Faculty Handbook when he or she submits an amendment to the University Council for consideration and, subsequently, on the outcome of the Council's deliberations. If the change advances to the Faculty Senate for its review, the vice chair of the Senate shall inform the Committee on the status of the Senate's deliberations. The President (or his designee) shall promptly inform the Committee on the final decision of the Board. In the case of approval, the Committee will incorporate the change into the Handbook and advise the faculty that an amendment has occurred. 5.42.b The Committee on the Faculty Handbook is responsible for maintaining an up-to-date copy of the Handbook that reflects all amendments which have received final approval. While the up-to-date text of the Handbook may be made available online, the authoritative copy shall be a printed one maintained by the Committee on the Faculty Handbook. This copy, marked with the date of the latest amendment, shall be available for consultation in the University Archives.

5.42.c The Committee on the Faculty Handbook will periodically conduct workshops to acquaint the faculty with particularly important provisions of the Handbook, or to explain significant amendments. Such workshops shall be conducted at the beginning of each academic year for new faculty members and otherwise as needed.

Membership: This committee consists of three members: The Provost (or his or her designee), the vice chair of the Faculty Senate, and one faculty member appointed by the President from among the Faculty Senate’s minimum of three nominees. The committee is chaired by the vice chair of the Faculty Senate.
